

Welcome to this special Hong Kong Reunion 2007 edition of the newsletter. It is coming out in this format simply because we want you to concentrate on next year's reunion in Hong Kong. The venue for the dinner has been booked by John Shannon and a deposit paid, so please support the reunion and attend if you can. Kindly note that 17 November 2007 is not available and the dinner will now take place on Thursday 15 November 2007. Complete the enclosed reply page and return it to me (address overleaf) or send the details by e-mail - there is no need to forward any money at this stage, but we will consider a positive return to be a promise that you will attend. We may not be able to include more than 100 people, so it may become a question of first come, first served.

The following may assist your planning:

- Cathay Pacific Airways may be able to provide a group discount on travel to and from Hong Kong for those attending the reunion even though people will be flying to and from different places around the world at different times. Please contact me at m.k.roberts@cwgsy.net if you would like details of this offer if it becomes available.
- As already made known to you, John Prince has kindly offered to negotiate corporate hotel rates in Hong Kong for those attending the reunion. Please contact him at john.prince@wanadoo.fr for details.

STOP PRESS

Just as we were going to print with this letter we received the sad news that Mr. Tang Pong MBE, former Senior Lecturer and one of the original 'Gang of Four' teachers of Chinese (National) died in the United States in early November at the age of 84. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Tang and to the members of her family.
